

Call For Papers

American Journal of Science & Engineering (AJSE) is a peer reviewed international journal which publishes articles in the field of modern aspects of Scientific advancement. This journal publishes high-quality innovative research work in the field of modern aspects of Science & Engineering. The journal invites original research article and review article from the prospective authors. The journal addresses articles in the field of development of various fields of engineering as well as their applications. The journal addresses the issue of modern research as well as the practical applications of these procedures in solving the real life problems. There is no charge for publication in this journal.

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

Full Paper Submission: 10th June 2020

Acceptance Notification: 10th July 2020

Publication on: 25th July 2020

The journal invites innovative, high quality research articles in the field of modern computational science like but not restricted to

- Optimization
- Soft Computing
- Data base management systems
- Design of algorithms
- Performance of algorithms
- Computer architecture
- Computer networks
- Fuzzy logic
- Artificial Intelligence
- Evolutionary Computation
- Cloud computing
- Cognitive radio
- Big Data Analytics
- Internet of Things

The Journal's area of interest includes but not limited to application of suitable computational procedures to the areas

- Image processing
- Signal processing
- Process Integration
- Design of electrical systems
- Smart grid
- Renewable energy systems
- Economic policy framing
- Managerial practices
- Biomedical signal processing
- Biomedical instrument design
- Communication systems
- Control systems
- Pattern recognition
- Robotics
- Automation
- Nano and micro systems

PAPER SUBMISSION GUIDELINE

Submission of papers will be handled electronically via EDAS. The author must care about the submission via EDAS and ensure there will be no multiple submission of the same paper. Template for the Manuscript can be found HERE. Visit: <https://ajse.us/submission/> for further details.
